UNIROPA Student Educational Holidays Inc. will organize the program and make arrangements for transportation, accommodations, tours and meals as outlined on the day-by-day itinerary provided to each group through the Teacher Chaperone in charge. Of necessity, to make such arrangements, UNIROPA must contract the services of a variety of companies. However, it is to be understood that UNIROPA has no direct control over such companies.

Consequently, UNIROPA Student Educational Holidays Inc. gives notice that it acts only as agent of the participants. It undertakes the arrangement of the program on the sole condition that UNIROPA shall not be held responsible for any injury, accident loss, delay, damage or irregularity which may be occasioned through acts of default of any company and/or person(s) engaged in conveying the participant or carrying out the arrangement of the program or otherwise in connection herewith, or hotel, proprietor or servants, or by reason of defect of any mode of transportation, or by inclement weather, social unrest, terrorist activities, strikes or government restrictions or acts of God. UNIROPA shall not be held responsible for loss of passport, airline / rail tickets or other documents, of loss of or damage to luggage or any other participants' belongings.

Liability of transportation companies, residence/hotel companies, & all other services connected with the program applied for, is governed by the laws of the country in which the events take place, and such liability is subject to the condition and regulations upon which the transportation tickets, coupons, or vouchers are issued.

Representatives duly appointed by UNIROPA are to be considered as the final authority in all details pertaining to the trip. UNIROPA reserves the right to alter the program or to make changes or substitutions deemed to be in the group's best interest & to make final decisions on rooming arrangements and hotels assigned to groups.

UNIROPA reserves the right to relieve from further participation any person(s) whose conduct or actions are found to be detrimental to the successful completion of the program. Students who become a serious discipline problem will be sent home at their own expense. Further, hotel managements have served notice that students (i.e., the parents) will be held responsible for any damage to hotel property.

In signing this acceptance of responsibility, the applicant thereby releases UNIROPA Student Educational Holidays Inc., group leaders, accompanying teachers, appointees and sub-agents, the school and the school board of the applicant, and each of them from all claims and demands whatsoever which the applicant or his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns may have against them or any of them by reason of any aforesaid matters.

ACCEPTANCE OF RESPONSIBILITY:

We the undersigned have read both sides of this page and understand the guidelines and conditions under which a student may participate in a program of UNIROPA Student Educational Holidays Inc. and agree to these conditions.
